TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

BERKELEY, CAL., THURSDAY OCTOBER 10, 1895.

NUMBER 149

BEING ENFORCED.

MARSHAL LLOYD ENFORCES THE NEW ORDINANCE TODAY.

Messrs. Doan, Stricker, Fonzo and Berg Have Their Goods Taken to the City Hall.

A great many people residing about East Berkeley last evening may have thought that they heard the Salvation army marching through the streets. If they thought so they were mistaken for it was not its night out.

The moon had not shown its bright, large face above the hills back of Berkeley when the soldier's tramp was heard along Shattuck avenue and in other streets. It proved afterwards that Town Marshal Lloyd, in command of his brigade, (all brigadiers) was giving them a drill for practice. At least this was the nominal excuse given as it was the first time, under the present regime, that a thing of this kind had happened. It was really a foreshadowing of events to come. After some practice the whole force was marched down University avenue in strict military style to the Town Hall. Once inside the force was then informed of an attack that would be made today upon the enemy. Silently and in the dark each and every one departed for his tent to sleep and dream on the events of the morrow.

This morning at a good seasonable hour there was a gathering at the Town Hall of the disciplined army, and as the clock clicked at 9:30 the army was set in motion. The attack was to be made at 10 o'clock precisely. The Marshal arranged his forces as follows: To the California and Acheson hotels Special Officer Esmond of Lorin and Deputy Sheriff and Constable Davis were assigned; Deputy Marshal Rawson took his company to Fred Fonzo's Cafe, and Marshal Lloyd stationed his forces at Geo. H. Stricker's cigar store. At the Acheson hotel, kept by A. Berg, there was no attempt at any hindrance of the soldiers passing in. Mr. Berg happened to be away, over to San Francisco. A room was entered where a bar was found, and behind it and around about were found alleged liquors of all varieties. An express wagon was soon at the door and every vessel having in it anything in the shape of supposed illicit liquors was taken to the wagon and transported to the Town Hall.

At the California Hotel, kept by Mr. Doran, the same kind of experience was gone through with. Mr. Salomon's billiard parlors were thoroughly examined but nothing of the kind of goods the officers were looking for could be found.

At Fred Fonzo's cafe Officer Rawson found a good variety but not very large quantities of what is supposed to be contraband goods, all of which were consigned to the Town Hall and were conveyed there by an express wagon.

At Stricker's cigar store there was some detention on account of the absence of the proprietor. He was sent for and on his appearance Marshal Lloyd entered into the back part of the building and found what he considered liquor, after sampling a variety of different kind of goods. The Marshal was not satisfied with what he could see in front of him but wanted to look into a sideboard and closet, which the owner refused to open for him. Without much ado he forced the door open and found more goods upon which he placed the majestic hand of the law.

It was but a few minutes after 12 o'clock noon when so much of the raid had been completed. All the ammunition and provisions of the enemy had been captured and placed in the Town Hall.

All of this work had been done under the name of search warrants. Preparations for another departure of the officers had been made at the hour mentioned above and it is quite likely that additional stores will be accumulated in the town's fortress.

The whole business was a complete surprise to those who controlled the places entered, and in fact to a very large majority of the community in East and North Berkeley. But very few were let into the secret and hence the quick success of Marshal Lloyd.

W. H. Bone was on hand giving the officers all the assistance he could as a private citizen.

The goods captured take up about one-half of the main portion of the large hall in the town building.

When it was all over the people on the streets seemed to have just awakened to the fact that there was a genuine raid upon the East Berkeley saloons. While the temperance people have been long hoping that something of this kind would be done, they had met with so many set backs it began to be considered almost impossible to accomplish what they desired.

Warrants for the arrest of the parties concerned will probably be issued and served this afternoon, and for such others who may be caught in the same fix.

University Notes.

Mrs. Charles Webb Howard of Oakland gave a dinner last night to Professor Carl C. Plehn and wife of the University of California, and to Professor Howard, Stanford's new instructor in political economy. In the evening Professor Powers gave an address on "Good Citizenship" to a number of students interested in economics, whom Mrs. Howard had invited to hear him.

The biological section of the Science Association met last evening in South Hall. Dr. H. P. Johnson, assistant professor of biology, read a paper on "Recent Views as to the Homologies of the Germ Layers."

George H. Howison Mills, professor of philosophy at the University of California, has issued in pamphlet form the lecture which he delivered at Stanford October 1st on "The Limits of Evolution."

Professor Bernard Moses, head of the department of history and economics at the University, will give a course of free lectures on "City Life and Labor" at 15 South Park, San Francisco on Friday evenings at 8 o'clock, beginning October 18th. After each lecture an opportunity will be given for questions and brief discussions.

The candidates for positions on the University football team have moved into training quarters. The house secured is on Union street, half a block from the gymnasium. Coach Butterworth has been living in this house since his arrival in Berkeley. Besides the coach and Manager Lang, those who are taking their meals at the training table at present are Sherman, Plunkett, Wilson, Ransome, Schmidt, Bender, Deahl, Walthall and Kennedy.

John Bramstead who resides on San Pablo avenue, does not care a fig whether that avenue is macadamized or not. In fact he does not care for anything just now except a bright little girl baby that was presented to him by his wife on last Tuesday morning. In the course of a few days after he has picked up numerous carpet tacks and pins with the soles of his feet, he will come back to earth again and recognize his friends.

The Rev. Dr. Coyle of the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland will deliver the opening address of the Y. M. C. A. Convention. His subject will be "The Pre-eminent Importance of the Spiritual in Culture."

A MASS MEETING.

HELD AT SOUTH BERKELEY LAST EVENING.

Declared in Favor of Voting Any Amount of Bonds For a New High School.

South Berkeley Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting was held at South Berkeley for the purpose of endorsing the proposition of the Board of Education to bond the town and build a High School. As the matter had to all intents and purposes been prearranged, the outcome of the meeting was that South Berkeley wanted a High School, and without giving any instructions to their representatives they would abide by the decision of the Boards of School Directors and Trustees. The principal speakers of the evening were School Directors Boone and Norton, Trustee Hoff and private citizen Charles H. Spear.

The situation at South Berkeley is to a certain extent different from other portions of the town. Previous to it becoming a part of Berkeley its citizens bonded themselves in the sum of $10,000, which was afterwards increased to $11,000, for the purpose of building a grammar school house.

This money was sufficient to erect a nine-class-room building, and finish the same with all that was necessary for school purposes. Now the property owners there are paying a certain amount of taxes each year, independent of all other taxes, to liquidate the bond given.

They have a good grammar school building and think that if North, East or West Berkeley want a grammar school they should get it in the same way. They contend that they are working for their sole interest and nobody else. As they have the grammar school they now want a High School and nothing else.

As near as can be understood the above represents the ideas of quite a number of the South Berkeley people if not a majority. Perhaps the stand they take is a correct one, that of having paid privately for their grammar school other parts of the town should do the same.

They are perfectly willing, however, to vote for any amount of bonds the Board of Education may recommend. It is unfortunate that the public expression of the representative people of South Berkeley did not realize at this meeting.

From East and South Berkeley, as far as any expression has come at all, it is to be a High School or nothing except perhaps the expense of $1000 for an election to find the answer in a legal form.

Real Estate Transfers.

Association; also lot on N line of Addison street, 80.5 W of Tenth street, 31.0 by 100, block 99, tract B, Berkeley L. and T. I. Association.

That it would be well if the taxpayers knew just how the town of Berkeley stands financially.

Never Received It.

The following letter is clipped from the columns of the Herald, as it is stated that the letter had been sent to the GAZETTE. We do not doubt the statement of Piper, Aden, Goodall Co., that they sent the letter to the GAZETTE but we must state that the letter has not yet arrived. Had it arrived we would have published it the same as we do now:

Editor Herald—Sir: We have this day sent to the Berkeley GAZETTE a letter, of which the following is a copy, and which you may publish if you choose:

GAZETTE PUBLISHING CO., Berkeley, Cal.—Gentlemen: We notice by the GAZETTE of yesterday an article headed "There is No Hope," in which you refer to our steamer "Hope," and a notice recently served on us by R. P. Thomas, of the Standard Soap Co., to vacate the wharf at West Berkeley after sixty (60) days.

So far as the notice being served is concerned, we beg to concur, but regarding its authenticity we respectfully refer you to the telegrams below, which answer for themselves.

We are not in the soap business and possibly are not as slippery and smooth as some of our soap manufacturing friends; nevertheless, being in the transportation business, we propose continuing our steamer service between San Francisco and Berkeley, all the reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Our dealings with Mr. Heywood have always been pleasant and satisfactory, as the telegrams will show, as well as showing the last desperate attempt of the Berkeley Soap King to dislodge us. Respectfully yours, [Signed] PIPER, ADEN, GOODALL CO. San Francisco, October 5, 1895.

COPIES OF TELEGRAMS. To W. B. Heywood, Gualala, Cal.—Have received sixty days' notice from Thomas. Has he your authority? Answer.

[Signed] PIPER, ADEN, GOODALL CO. San Francisco, October 3, 1895.

To Piper, Aden, Goodall Co., 24 Clay street, San Francisco.—Thomas has no authority. I will attend to that if necessary.

[Signed] W. B. HEYWOOD. Gualala, Cal., October 4, 1895.

Respectfully yours, PIPER, ADEN, GOODALL CO.

In reference to the above statement we were informed by a person who claimed to know that Captain Thomas had leased the wharf from Mr. Heywood, and had been instructed by that gentleman to give the owners of the Hope sixty days notice that they could no longer use it as a driveway.

As to whether the Hope could be denied the use of the wharf under any circumstances we do not know. As far as stopping it from running, that could not be done, as the boat could easily land at Taylor's wharf, or at the Niehaus wharf.

Bottomley Went to Jail.

Isaac Bottomley, who was one of the principals in a dog-fighting incident that recently transpired at his notorious resort in Temescal, stepped into the County Jail at Oakland yesterday without realizing his position until the big iron doors clanged behind him. A warrant was issued for his arrest on a charge of selling liquor without a license. Constable Koch attempted to serve it but was overpowered by Bottomley and his wife. The dog fighter disappeared from his accustomed haunts, and the dust began to settle on the warrant as it laid in the office of Justice Clift.

Bottomley surprised the officers yesterday by surrendering himself. He had two bondsmen, James Butler and John White, to qualify as sureties for his appearance in court, and thus prepared himself to keep out of jail. The constable had a surprise in store for Bottomley, however, and sprung it by serving a warrant upon the dog-baiter for resisting an officer. He was unable to furnish bail and was hustled off to the County Jail.

A WEAK DEFENSE.

DURRANT TELLS ABOUT AN UNKNOWN MAN.

Who told him to watch the Ferry for Blanche Lamont, and he did so.

Special dispatches to the GAZETTE.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—The courtroom of Judge Murphy was more than crowded when court was called this morning, as it was thought that District Attorney Barnes would put Durrant under fire of cross examination. In this they were disappointed, as the defense was not through with him, and from indications will not be before tomorrow evening. The most important part of the testimony was the bringing into the case of Durrant an unknown man whom Durrant says he met shortly after the disappearance of Blanche Lamont approached him on Post street, and touching him on the shoulder told him to go to the ferry and watch for Blanche Lamont. He testified that he never saw the man before, but he described him very accurately. He gave the meeting with the man as his reason for going to the house of Mrs. Vogel on the Sunday after Blanche Lamont's disappearance and asking whether they had heard anything of her. On the Sunday after Minnie Williams disappearance he went to the ferry to watch for Blanche Lamont according to the instructions received from the unknown man who accosted him. After he went to the ferry he went to the armory to prepare for his trip with the Signal Corps. He went on the Mission street car. He further testified that he did not meet Minnie Williams at the boat, nor did he see her there or anywhere else. He further stated that he often walked home with Miss Lamont from church, and that on one occasion he took her to the park and on another to a musicale. He gave his testimony in the same manner as he did yesterday and was the most composed man in the room. He states that his attorneys and his detectives have tried to run down this unknown man but thus far they have failed to locate him.

Fire in a Penitentiary.

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 10.—A most disastrous fire broke out in the harness shop of the penitentiary here today. For a while it was thought the whole institution was doomed but the fire was finally extinguished after doing damage to the extent of $50,000.

Denies the Statement.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Minister Castle, the new Hawaiian minister, stated today that the statement made in Chicago yesterday by Mr. Haynes, editor of the Hawaiian, to the effect that the Hawaiian government was upon the verge of dissolution was unqualifiedly false.

New Freight Schedule.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—Manager Curtis of the Traffic Association is preparing a schedule of freight rates which he will introduce at the next conference of Railroad Representatives, which will take place at Salt Lake. His object is to secure the trade of Utah and Colorado for the San Francisco merchants, and to enable them to compete on all classes of goods with Eastern merchants and manufacturers.

Wanted in Mexico.

New York, Oct. 10.—The Columbian Liberty Bell Commissioners received an invitation today from the government of Mexico, asking them to exhibit the now famous liberty bell in Mexico, at the close of the Atlanta exposition.

Committed Suicide.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—The body of Justus Held, a retired Oakland hotel keeper, was found floating in the bay yesterday afternoon near the Cliff House. He leaves an estate valued at from $50,000 to $70,000. He had resided in Oakland for over 27 years.

The Dog Fighters.

As is published elsewhere in these columns, Ike Bottomly, the notorious dog fighter and all round law breaker, was locked up yesterday in the county jail in default of bonds for resisting an officer. This morning when the officers wanted to take him to Judge Clift's court for trial he refused to go or to walk a step. The officers determined that he should go, so they picked him up and carried him, while a crowd of a thousand or more people followed him from the county jail to the courtroom. Upon arriving there his attorney plead not guilty for him and his case was set for Saturday next.

The man Kennedy who was convicted several days ago for attending the dog fight appeared for sentence, and his attorney made an appeal for over hour asking that the Court be lenient with his client. The Court took a different view of it however, and fined Kennedy $75 or 35 days in jail.

This caused great joy for Mrs. Sanford, but it completely knocked out the other thirty defendants who were present at the fight and who are yet to be tried.

GAZETTELETS.

Willie Agee, aged 26, and Bessie Campbell, aged 18, both of Berkeley were married yesterday in Oakland by Justice Clift.

That the new bridges on Fourth, Sixth and Eighth streets, West Berkeley, are a great improvement on the old ones.

Harry Adolph of the Berkeley Jersey Farm Dairy, was arrested today on a charge of not selling pure milk, by Inspector Broderick of that city.

Mr. Monterichard and his children wish to publicly thank the people of Berkeley and other friends for their many kindnesses during their sad bereavement.

James H. P. Mason of Berkeley has taken out a license to wed Miss Abbie Mee of Oakland. The wedding will be a double one as Miss Mee's sister and an Oakland gentleman will be married at the same time. Both of the young ladies are clerks in the Lace House in Oakland.

Mrs. Mary P. Hilliard, who died in Oakland last Sunday, was a former resident of Berkeley and the mother of Harry Hilliard, for some time secretary of the Berkeley Y. M. C. A. While in Berkeley Mrs. Hilliard was a member of the First Presbyterian church and an active worker in the Ladies' Aid Society and in the missionary societies. Mr. Hilliard arrived in Berkeley yesterday morning from Los Angeles, his present home, to attend the funeral, which was held this morning from the Watkins residence, Rev. Dr. Ketchum officiating.

Horatio Stebbins Jr. has refused the Hinkley scholarship. He is the son of Dr. Horatio Stebbins of San Francisco, one of the Regents of the University, and the scholarship was awarded to him for a full four years' course at the University. At the time when the award was made severe criticisms were published of the Regents' choice. It was said that the scholarship had been founded with a view to helping through college some youth who would be unable to attend without its aid and that Dr. Stebbins who receives $4000 per year as pastor of the First Unitarian church of San Francisco, should be able to send his son to college without the help of a scholarship. It is understood that these criticisms are the cause of young Stebbins declining the proffered scholarship, which has now been awarded to Fred W. Koch. The latter is a well known and popular student, captain of the U. C. athletic team and probably the best all-round athlete in college. He is a member of the class of '97.

That if the new bridges do not have sidings the underpinning will be washed away just as soon as the rain commences to fall in any quantity.

TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

[THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1895.]

WHERE THE "GAZETTE" STANDS.

For the benefit of Windy Winn and any others who may believe his writings, we desire to inform them that the GAZETTE is not the organ of any person, corporation or association. The GAZETTE is a free lance which will larrup evil or wrong doers whoever they may be, regardless of their standing in the community. It will also treat the honest and upright citizen or corporation as they should be treated. The editor of this paper cannot be dictated to by any man living as to what he writes or writes. Can the editor of the Herald say as much? Does not he have to run his paper on certain lines, and at the dictation of the owner of the plant? As far as the GAZETTE being the organ of the Soap Works "by whose grace it is operated," the statement is a wilful lie, and no one knows it better than the editor of the Herald. The Standard Soap Works has no more to do with the GAZETTE than the editor of the Herald has, and it is a solid cold fact that he has no interest in it. It is true that room and power have been obtained from the Standard Soap Works, but that has been paid for each and every month. Again the Standard Soap Company has too much to attend to in the manufacture of soap to care what the GAZETTE publishes. The Standard Soap Company is not running newspapers at the present time, nor is any person connected with the Soap Works doing so, consequently the gratuitous insult to an industry that year in and year out is giving employment to a large number of people and paying a large amount of taxes, by the editor of the Herald, hurts no one but himself and the paper he edits. As far as whooping up the Soap Works, the GAZETTE whoops up every industry in the town thereby assisting in the growth and advancement of the town, it does not run them down and try to drive them away from the town.

The Soap Works and other industries of Berkeley pay a large amount of taxes into the town treasury every year in order to maintain and improve the town. The editor of the Herald does not pay ONE CENT of taxes, yet he sets himself up as a censor, and then cries down the men and firms that do pay taxes. We shall try and refrain from noticing him any more, but may publish excerpts from the Watsonville and Hollister newspapers that are quite interesting.

OUR NEW HOME.

The GAZETTE is now having erected on Third street, near Bancroft way, a fine new office 30x70 feet. The front portion will contain the business office and editorial rooms, while the rest will be used for the composition room, job room and press room. The office will be one of the best lighted in town and one of the best equipped, and will include a complete stereotyping outfit. This all points to the prosperity of the paper and gives a knock down argument to the statement of an unreliable weekly paper, to the effect that the GAZETTE is operated by the Standard Soap Works. In about two weeks we shall be able to invite our friends to inspect our new home and all of its appliances. A full description of the building will be given in a few days, as we know the public is interested in the success of Berkeley's only daily newspaper.

NOT READY YET, WINDY.

The editor of the Herald says that "if West Berkeley cannot agree with the rest of the city, why not withdraw and have a city of itself? If the ante in this game is too great, pull out and start a game all by your little selves, where the ante is one bean and the limit five."

The above is written to belittle the people of West Berkeley, who in mass meeting assembled declared in favor of $75,000 bonds for school purposes. He now seems to think that the matter of bonds is a poker proposition, and that as he and a few others have raised the amount to $100,000, the people of West Berkeley must either see the raise or drop out of the game. It is not probable that West Berkeley will accept the proposition of the Herald editor to withdraw from the town as they are not "seseshionists" but are loyal to Berkeley and its interests. They know how much they can stand in the way of taxation and are willing to go ahead that far and when the time comes that they can go another step they will cheerfully do so and vote for bonds for a High School. At present they want primary and grammar schools.

There is a gleam of sunshine in the eye of the silverite today. Of late there has been a demand for this mineral in a quiet way until the market begins to feel it. At New York yesterday there was an advance to 69 1/2 on purchases of pretty good amounts, which leaves but small comparative quantities on hand to fill further orders which are now supposed to come from China.

Against Pickle Men.

City Councilman John F. Towle, whose introduction of an ordinance to regulate the styles in bathing suits recently threw the aquatic athletes of the Columbian Rowing Club into cold perspiration, has attracted another subject, which promises to involve the Council in serious debate.

When the City Council was about to adjourn last night after its customary session over the tax levy problem, Mr. Towle presented an ordinance for consideration which read as follows: "No person shall engage in the business, or assist in the business, of manufacturing pickles in the city of Oakland except in that portion of the city lying south of Third street and west of Peralta street." The district in which Mr. Towle's ordinance would exclusively confine the manufacture of pickles is largely occupied at present by the Southern Pacific Company's railroad yards and a few acres of marsh land where the predatory goat luxuriates on a diet of sea-weed and abandoned fruit cans.

M. Fischel had a warrant issued last evening for the arrest of his divorced wife upon the charge of disturbing his peace. This morning Justice Lord set the hearing of the case for next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

E. C. Barclay desires to notify the policy holders of the International Indemnity Company that he has resigned his position as Manager and has severed his connection with said company to accept the management of the Policy Holders Protective Association, and the management of the United Workmen's Alliance.

Sole Made.

A lady who had recently moved to a new neighborhood was one morning called to the door by the violent ringing of the bell. On the piazza stood a dapper little man who immediately commenced talking at a mile a minute pace: "Mornin', ma'am. Dunno whether you know me or not. Most of the people round here do. I'm the man that has fits."

The astonished lady thought that some people-claim distinction on very strange, not to say unfit, grounds.

"Yes'm, have fits any time, any place," he went on. "Liable to drop right down in one anywhere. Speet to get a pension. Sellin' those wire hooks for birdcages. Every one buys some. Give me anything they likes—5 cents or 25 cents. Everybody helps me, cos they know I have fits. Liable to drop right down in one anywhere." The dazed listener hastily gave him what change she had and closed the door, thanking her lucky stars that he didn't feel called upon "to drop down in one" right there.—Boston Transcript.

Curious, but True.

Although difficult to believe, it is nevertheless true that the death of two half sisters, the daughters of the same father, occurred 170 years apart. The grandfather of the British minister, Charles James Fox, Sir Stephen Fox, married in 1654, and had a daughter born to him in 1655, who died in the course of the same year. He had several other children, who grew up and married, but all of them died before the father, and without issue. Sir Stephen, not wishing his large fortune to fall into the hands of distant relatives, married again at a very advanced age, and his youngest daughter was born in 1727. She reached the age of 98 years, and died in 1825, that is 170 years after the death of her oldest sister. She saw Queen Victoria when the latter was a child, while her half sister was carried in the arms of Oliver Cromwell.

Last Monday in April 1896, at six o'clock p. m., and if not paid prior thereto five (5) per cent will be added to the amount thereof.

Taxpayers are requested to examine their bills and be sure that all their property is described therein; and if they choose can pay both installments at the time the first installment is due and payable.

All taxes will be paid at the Tax Collector's office 2108 Shattuck Avenue, (opposite Berkeley station,) which will be open during the month of October after the 8th from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. (Sundays excepted) and during the month of November up to and including November 25th, from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. (Sundays excepted) after which latter date the first installment of the taxes will be delinquent.

The taxpayers are respectfully requested—when convenient—to pay their taxes early and by so doing avoid a crush the last few days.

Signed,
JOHN SQUIRES,
Tax Collector Town of Berkeley.

Compressed Air.

According to a statement made at the Montreal meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers by Superintendent Heggem of the engine works at Massillon, O., the advantages of compressed air have been very pronounced in the foundry operations of that establishment. The air is supplied by means of three compressors. A bell driven compressor, 18 by 10 inches in size, runs constantly and supplies most of the air that is used, and the working pressure is from 60 to 70 pounds; a 7½ inch by 7 inch steam driven duplex compressor is operated by a pressure valve, so that when the pressure of air falls below 60 pounds this compressor is put in motion to supply the deficiency—the air supply being thus maintained automatically. A smaller steam driven compressor is also kept as a reserve in case of accident to either of the other machines. The air is stored in three reservoirs of 250 cubic feet capacity each, and these reservoirs are placed in those parts of the works where the greatest volume of air is required, and, owing to the intermittent use of the air, the compressors are equal to furnishing a sufficient amount, and at a cost of something like $8 per day of ten hours.

Old English Coal Records.

There is a record, dated 853, of the receipt of 12 cartloads of fossil coal at the abbey of Peterborough, and this was assuredly not the first case of production and delivery.

The deeds of the bishopric of Durham contain records of grants of land to colliers as far back as 1180, in various parts of the county. In the year 1239 a charter was granted by Henry III to the freemen of Newcastle-on-Tyne to dig coal in the fields belonging to the castle, and it was in or about this year that coal was first sent to London. Very early in the fourteenth century evidence abounds of a large consumption of coal by smiths, brewers and others. Already the smoke nuisance appeared, and a commission of Edward I levied fines to prevent it.

Another charter, or license, was granted to the freemen of Newcastle in Edward III's time to work coal within the town walls, and in the year 1367 coal began to be worked at Winton, in the neighborhood where George Stephenson was to evolve the locomotive 400 years later, while himself a worker at the coal pits.—All the Year Round.

Mrs. Kendal and Servants.

The popular English actress, Mrs. Kendal, is a stickler for outward badges of domestic service. She openly avows her opinion that American servants dress too well, and says: "No girl in my house can wear a fringe. I tell her plainly she must part her hair and comb it neatly back beneath a cap, and she must wear an apron and no jewelry, but a ribbon around her neck. Only a lady's maid may wear a brooch and go without the cap, but she must wear an apron. They must wear their caps at the theater too. Why, if they didn't I would wear one myself! There must be a distinction made somehow."

Mrs. Kendal probably does not remember that 100 or so years ago the social line of demarcation was drawn at actors and actresses, Dr. Johnson designating them as "amusing vagabonds." Nor does she evidently take into account that in this country those employed in domestic service are such an important and independent class that an employer has commonly too great fears of her cook being tempted away from her by a plain gold ring to stand at a brooch or a string of beads.—Exchange.

Sacred Keys.

Every person's feelings have a front door and a side door by which they may be entered. The front door is on the street. Some keep it always open, some keep it latched, some locked, some bolted with a chain that will let you peep in, but not get in, and some nail it up, so that nothing can pass its threshold. This front door leads into a passage which opens into an anteroom, and this into the interior apartments. The side door opens at once into the secret chamber. There is almost always one key to the side door. This is carried for years hidden in a mother's bosom. Fathers, brothers, sisters and friends often, but by no means so universally, have duplicates of it. The wedding ring conveys a right to one. Alas, if none is given with it! Be very careful to whom you trust one of these keys of the side door.—C. W. Holmes.

H. H. HEYWOOD

The Delaware Street Grocer

It Is Said

That the blank applications for conducting a saloon have been distributed to all parts of the town except East Berkeley.

That paint and putty will make the Town Hall and its surroundings of wood work look better.

That the west end of Strawberry creek is stopped up so that the slum going down it cannot get into the bay.

That people in that section could not stand it if the coconut oil factory did not stand off the foul smells that arise from the standing foul nastiness.

That there are a number of so-called temperance houses in West Berkeley that will be searched by the Marshal unless they make application for a license on Friday evening next.

That ex-Constable Bone was in his element today and that his face beamed like the bloom on a red apple as he saw the goods of the suspects being carted to the Town Hall.

Apostolic Doctrine.

All lovers of truth are again cordially invited to attend the services in the kindergarten school, corner of University avenue and Eighth street, which commence at 7:30 every evening.

These services will continue for only seven more successive nights. Elder Daley will preach this evening on "Eternal Judgment."

Come and hear the gospel in its fulness and purity, the gospel which has not been perverted by man. A man of God will declare the full counsel of God.
